at MJS

What is important to us as a school?

What might YOU be looking for in a school?

To become a responsible pupil, and responsible member of the community

To not give up

RESILIENCE

To be respectful to everyone around them, and expect that back

To have a drive to want to continue to get better and better

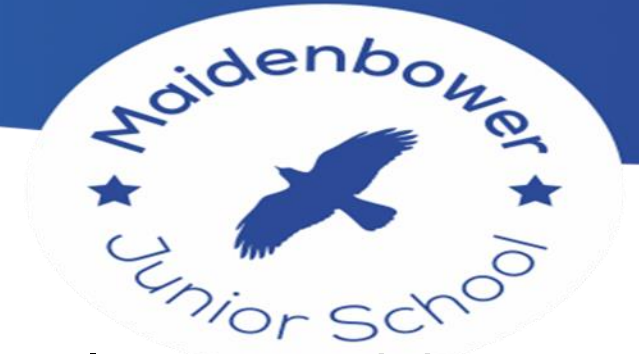

Ask questions about the world around them

To understand each other's differences – and celebrate these

What else is important to us?

- Very effective programme to provide emotional support to pupils
 - school counsellor
 - ThoughtFull partnership
 - Pastoral Tas
 - ELSAs
 - The Den
- Collaboration with feeder schools to meet the needs of pupils
- Staff / pupil relationships

What else is important to us?

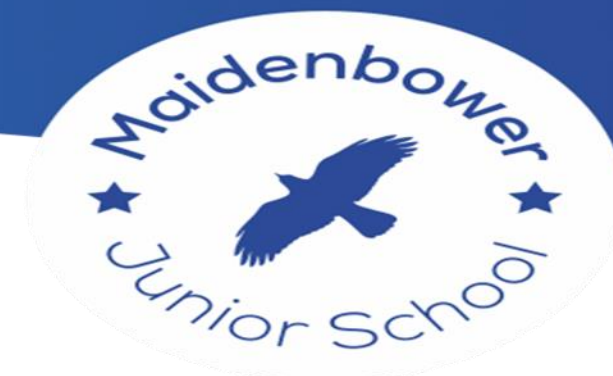

- Provision for children with additional needs, including a specialist provision (Launchpad) that integrate into mainstream

OUTDOOR LEARNING

MAGICAL MOMENTS IN SCHOOL

MAGICAL EXTRA-CURRICULAR MOMENTS

What will moving to a bigger school mean?

POSSIBLE MISCONCEPTIONS

- Lack of personalised approach
- Not knowing my child's needs when they start

• WHAT IT MEANS FOR US ...

- Facilities and space
- Staff expertise
- Opportunities to represent the school and wider school enrichment
- Being part of memorable whole school events
- Preparation for secondary school
