Dear Parents and Carers,

Michael Rosen Day – Funny Feasts

After half-term, on the 13th November, we will be having a Michael Rosen Day. The purpose of this is to celebrate reading and aims to create a love of listening, reading and writing poetry.

Throughout the day all children will learn about Michael Rosen, take part in a virtual live lesson that is lead by the man himself and they will have a go at writing their own poems. They may bring any Michael Rosen books you have at home to school to help inspire them.

Due to the theme of the day being: Funny Feasts. There will also be an optional opportunity for the children to bring Michael Rosen inspired or funny food items in their lunch box, or for their snack if your child has school dinners.

Some suggestions:

- A sandwich cut into a funny shape using a cookie cutter.
- A banana with pictures or messages written on it.
- Food that makes a funny face when put together.
- Unusual food combinations – e.g. spaghetti with maple syrup

Please ensure that any foods you pack continue to follow our school's allergy policy.

Yours sincerely,
Miss Awcock
Year 6 teacher and Reading lead.
