What might YOU be looking for in a school?

To become a responsible pupil, and responsible member of the community

To not give up

To be respectful to everyone around them, and expect that back

Ask questions about the world around them

To have a drive to want to continue to get better and better

To understand each other's differences – and celebrate these

What makes us special?

(according to external visitors)

‘Pupils know their teachers have high expectations of them and rise to the challenge.’

‘Relationships between adults and pupils are a strength.’

‘Classrooms are calm because pupils behave exceptionally well.’

‘There is a strong culture of safeguarding across the school.’

‘Highly effective with evidence of significant strengths in school effectiveness’

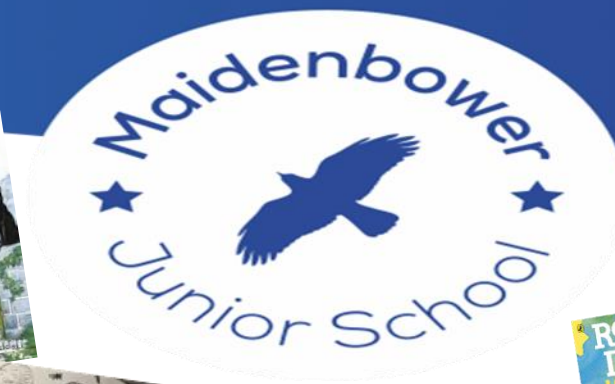

What makes us special?

- A desire to work with local schools at the heart of community
- Experienced and dedicated staff
- A specialist provision (Launchpad) that integrate into mainstream
- Therapeutic approach to positive behaviours
- Many trips and residential opportunities
- Excellent transitions from Yr 2 - 3 and Yr 6 – 7
- Creative and connected curriculum with business links
- Opportunities to excel outside of the classroom

Our love of learning across the broader curriculum...

We offer ways in which all children can shine, whether in sports competitions or solo activities, through sporting achievements, music certificates, art projects, maths and reading competitions and many more.

Pupils have chances to take on responsibility and leadership roles.

To summarise ...

- We are proud of our school and the staff and children within it.
- We are a true community school at the heart of Maidenbower with parents, staff, children and governors all working towards a common goal.
- Our vision for education is to give every child the best chance in life with learning and values at its heart.
- We have a safe and healthy learning community, where children as well as adults are happy, excited, challenged and inspired to be lifelong learners.
